Bill of Materials

For the Pasture Year:

As the Commission is not a court of law, it is not bound by the rules of evidence. It is, however, bound by the rules of logic and common sense. It is, therefore, not bound by the rules of the courts of law. It is, therefore, not bound by the rules of the courts of law.

The PRINTER to the READER.

Courteous Reader,

Presume that the Candor of thy Ingenuity is such, that thou wilt not rashly condemn me of Imprudence in the Reprinting these sad Sheets. First understand the Reasons moving me thereunto, and then I am somewhat confident that thou wilt Approve of my Design. I know that Romances and Play-books too much gratifie the Humours of the Populace; but humble and sincere Christians, with Delight recall to minde Gods Mercies, and with Awfulness tremble at His Judgments: Behold, the ensuing Papers will assist thy Meditation in both: Consider His Mercy to Thee and Mee, that we are yet in the Land of the Living, to work out our Salvation with Fear and Trembling: His Judgments on many Thousands in or near this City, whom He hath in One year swept away with the Beesome of a Temporal Destruction: O let us not imagine, that they were greater Sinners than we the Survivors! for, Except we speedily and seriously Repent, we shall all likewise perish, either Similitudine, or Certitudine Pænæ: But I am a Printer no Preacher; I shall therefore wave such Discourses, and briefly, yet perspicuously, render a faithfull Account, why I undertook this Publication.

In the year 1625. the stroke of the Lords hand was heavy upon this City and Suburbs, which year was ever since called

To the Reader.

The Great Plague: Now though thou hast seen probably several Printed General Reports, given in by the Parish Clerks, in that year; yet I am not able to Recover all the particular Weekly Bills thereof; the sight of them hath been much desired these times; but it is beyond my power, as yet, to answer many expectations. That Posterity may not any more be at such a loss, I resolved to communicate unto the Nation, these subsequent leaves: In all humility beseeching the Omnipotent, to confer upon us, such an uniforme and cordial Repentance, that every one of us may search out the Plague of his own Heart and Brain, and Purge our selves, by His gracious assistance, from all filthiness of Flesh and Spirit; that so He may in the riches of His tender Compassion, return in favour to this sinful City, and restore Health to our Habitations: That neither the Physicians of our Souls or Bodies, may hereafter in such great numbers forsake us; and that neither my self, or any other of my Profession, may have occasion, for the future, to Print such Dreadful lines.

In the year 1603, the Plague of the Lords hand was heavy upon this City and Suburbs, which year was ever since called
